OVERVIEW

In FY 2017, Law Enforcement Training (LET) was filled with a number of changes and challenges. One of the biggest changes was welcoming SSA Chad Mosteller as the new Training Administrator. SSA Mosteller brings years of supervisory experience and has been a long time instructor at LET. One of the biggest challenges is meeting the needs of the ever growing numbers of new law enforcement officers coming into our state. The basic academy has been filled to capacity, which can be a challenge with limited resources and manpower. However, we stay committed to our vision to provide a foundation of skill and knowledge for students attending the Basic Certification Course, upon which they will continue to build and enhance their job performance.

A Job Task Analysis (JTA) was completed on the Basic Academy by Stanard and Associates, which comprised a survey that was sent to all law enforcement agencies in the state. This JTA helps guide what is taught during the 13 week Basic Academy. The results of the JTA are as follows:

Traffic Accident Investigation was reduced from 34 hours to 16 hours and the focus was changed to Accident Response and Reporting

Street Gangs and Outlaw Motorcycle Gangs were eliminated - two hours each

Ten hours were added to Search & Seizure - two of those 10 hours requires a student to write a warrant

Two hours were added to Building Searches to focus on active shooter response

Six hours were added to Mental Health/Crisis Intervention for a total of 16 hours. Course name was changed to Response to Persons in Crisis

A new class was added - Concealed Carry/Firearms Laws (two hours)

We appreciate the participation we received from law enforcement agencies who helped complete this JTA. These new changes were approved by the Law Enforcement Officers Standards and Training Commission (LEOSTC) and will be implemented into the FY 18 academy sessions.

Three Basic Certification Sessions with a maximum class size of 48 students in each class were held. We had 134 officers graduate from the Basic Academy. There were four academic dismissals, two that resigned from their agency while attending the academy, three withdrew from the session and one was terminated by their agency.

This year was a big year for South Dakota Drug Abuse Resistance Education (DARE). Law Enforcement Training trained 26 new DARE officers and recertified two officers as DARE instructors during the DARE Officers Training in July 2017.

DARE America released the new High School Curriculums; Real Messages, MyPlaybook, and Celebrate Safely. All three high school programs were requested and made their debut in Aberdeen, South Dakota. We also welcomed a new member to the DARE family by selecting Makenna Christiansen, a sophomore at Deubrook High School, as the state representative to the DARE America Youth Advocacy Board. Makenna will be working with the state DARE Officers to help deliver the peer to peer message of DARE. 95 DARE Instructors delivered 10 week programs in 49 cities and over 72 schools. This community policing effort built and fostered relationships with educators and students in elementary, middle, and high school. 4,183 South Dakota students graduated from DARE this year.

The LEOSTC welcomed new member David Lawrence who is Supervisory Agent with BIA to the commission. LEOSTC approved a new Administrative Rule requiring every law enforcement officer to receive two-hours of training every two years in the area of crisis intervention/mental health. LET offered a number of crisis intervention/mental health trainings across the state and also offered online training to help officers meet this new requirement. LEOSTC also had several hearings and took action on several law enforcement officer certifications. The commission revoked one law enforcement officer certification and another seven officers voluntarily signed over their certification to the commission.

LET offered three Basic 911 Telecommunicator courses with a total of 50 telecommunicators receiving certification. A number of advanced 911 courses were also offered to include Crisis Communication, A Victim's Plea and Best Practices of a successful CTO. The basic 911 course continues to use a great deal of hands on training and the students are required to pass a practical exam on the simulators, which helps prepare them to be successful when they return home to their respective agencies.

LET has continued to be very aggressive in scheduling advanced training courses across the state. 52 advanced training courses were offered by LET with nearly 3,900 officers being trained on a variety of different topics. We continue to meet with our Training Coordinators from across the state to help us identify the most relevant training needs.

As we close the books on FY 2017, LET will continue to focus on our mission, "To promote excellence in public safety through development of professional standards, delivery of high quality training programs, and embracing the community policing philosophy. Thereby producing a highly trained and ethical professional who, will respectfully serve the citizens of South Dakota." We wish you a safe and healthy year and look forward to serving all of our customers in the years to come. The following pages will contain a summary of FY 2017 for your review.
